Improving Protective Orders

Increasing safety, access and efficiency

Reinvent Order of Protection and
Injunction Against Harassment (OP/IAH)
Process to Improve Safety, Access, and Efficiency.

Objectives

1. Evaluate existing procedures, policies, processes, and statutes;
2. Identify gaps in these areas;
3. Examine any nuances/differential practices that agencies in each county employ to accomplish issuance, service and reporting.
4. Streamline Process for Issuing, Serving and Entering OP/IAH
5. Increase Number of OP/IAH in NCIC by Increasing Service

Update OP Status/NCIC

House Bill 2249 Protective Orders Provisions

To increase safety, access and efficiency and to improve the delayed service and NCIC entry ACJC is proposing the following legislative changes:

1. Keep Plaintiff address and contact information confidential by default
2. The Court shall forward the Order of Protection to the service agency through the Protection Order System
3. Make the Supreme Court the holder of the Order of Protection Record
4. Allow for a victim notification system that can give plaintiff's real time information on their case
5. Service Agency has 72 hours to file affidavit, declaration, acceptance or return of service with the court
6. Removes requirement for a law enforcement agency to request that a prosecutorial agency file charges for a violation of a protective order.
7. Emergency Orders of Protection expire within 72 hours
8. Judicial Officers document Emergency Orders
9. Provides for a delayed effective date of January 1, 2020
